For former members of the Presbyterian Church, US, the address given in 1979 at Montreat is especially moving, as Ms. Morton shared some of her deepest feelings about her own life, her church and her commitment to justice.

This early southern feminist is, indeed, a prophet before her time. Her message for our day is one that needs to be heard—and heeded.

—Lillian McCulloch Taylor
 Princeton, New Jersey
